Procedure to Import Firearms into THAILAND (PHUKET)

1. Competitor will have to fill the information on the Application for Firearm and Ammunition import permit form. (The serial number on the actual firearm must exactly match the serial number on the permit application. If there are any discrepancies, the firearm will not be allowed into Thailand.)
2. Prepare a photocopy of your passport, sign the photocopy and send by mail or scan and e-mail with the firearm import form.
3. Organizer will apply for the temporary import permit and will get it before competitor arrives in Thailand.
4. Please book your flight and check your luggage “All-The-Way” to Phuket International Airport. You will need to clear your luggage with Customs at Phuket International Airport.
5. We will have our police officer meet you at Baggage Claim upon your arrival at the Airport arrival hall (after you have passed immigration formality). Our police officer will takes you through customs to import your firearms.
6. After the firearms have been checked against the permit (serial number, caliber), the police will take your firearms. You will be able to pick up your firearm at the shooting range.
7. Competitors shall return firearm to the store room at the end of each day.
8. After the match, our police officer will bring your firearms back to the Phuket International Airport and will meet you at the check in counter for your departure flight. Here there will be a quick customs check and then you can check your firearm in with the airline.
9. Any shooter who'd like to bring your own ammunition. It's required that you bring your ammunition TOGETHER with your Firearm. It's impossible to bring ONLY Ammunition into Thailand. You could be arrested and prosecuted with criminal charge. All ammunition might be subjected to 30% import tariff.
